Letter No. 421/51 of 22nd July 1903 from the Comptroller Mysore Post. Submitting for orders the Explanation of the Dy. Comr. Kaptan Distt. re delay in submitting monthly journals of Savings Bank transactions.

Monthly journals of Savings Bank transactions from the Kaptan District Treasuries are due in the Comptroller's office on the 10th of the following month to which they relate.

The submission of these journals from the Kaptan District Treasury were delayed from February to May 1903.

The Dy. Commissioner explains that the delay was owing to—

1) the increase of work in the Savings Bank especially after the appearance of plague;

2) insufficiency of ~~establishment~~ the present Establishment to cope with the work efficiently.

Note. The Dy. Comr. states that the letter post has been brought to the notice of Post. in connection with the question of the Annual Examination of the Head Comr. Branches of the Dy. Comrs. offices.
